

MAS la BUISSONNIÈRE

CHAMBRES D'HÔTES DELUXE

ROUTE TO OUR MAS

To reach us, and particularly to be able to explore our region, you really need a car. Of course, that doesn't mean you have to travel all the way to the south of France by car. There are a variety of ways to get here - we set out below the various options and some driving directions!

PLEASE NOTE

Mas la Buissonnière has only recently been allocated a street name and house number, so it may not be possible to find our address in your navigation system.

OUR ADDRESS

51 Rue de l'Arceau
Hameau de Foussargues

ROUTE TO OUR MAS

BY CAR - ROUTE FROM THE A7 OR A8 (MARSEILLE | NICE)

If you're driving to us from the south on the A7 or A8 then the easiest thing is to drive via Orange and take the A9 towards Nîmes/Montpellier/Barcelona from there. It might seem like a long way round, but it's a much smoother journey than through Avignon or Nîmes, which are followed by twisting and often badly-lit rural roads.

BY CAR - ROUTE FROM THE A9 (ORANGE | MONTPELLIER)

- Take exit 23 (Remoulins) and follow the road towards Uzès/Alès.
- After approx. 20 minutes you drive through Uzès; keep driving towards Alès.
- Drive through the village of Montaren and continue towards Alès.
- After just under 3 kilometres, turn right towards Aigaliers/Seynes (D115).
- At the end of this road turn right onto the D125 towards La Baume/St Quentin la Poterie.
- After 50 metres, take the first turning to the left (Chemin de Pousselargues) and follow the (paved) road up, keeping left.
- Turn right at the end to stay on the paved road (Chemin des Jardins).
- Turn left at the first crossing, passing a light-coloured garage door, and you have arrived: our parking area is at the end of the paved section of the road.

Have a good journey!

À bientôt!
